

MULTIGRADE TEACHER LEADER

Community of Practice

HOSTED BY THE CA RURAL ED NETWORK

- Multi-grade teachers specialize in providing an integrated curriculum that is customized to meet the needs of multi-age classrooms.
- Designing lessons for three or more grade levels for simultaneous instruction requires a unique set of skills and knowledge.
- Multi-grade teachers often work in small and rural schools, where there are few colleagues with which to collaborate regularly.
- Multi-grade teachers are leaders who have a significant role in their school's climate and culture.
- There is scarce data available that demonstrates the strengths and needs of small and rural schools.
